

which President Lincoln was assassinated in 1861, by Wilkes Booth, has just fallen in. There were about four hundred Government clerks in the building at the time, and scarcely one escaped without severe injuries of some kind. In many cases the injuries are fatal. The first floor collapsed, through weakness caused by an excavation for a cellar

The dead and wounded are being taken out as rapidly by the firemen and police as it is possible. Fifty dead and wounded have been taken

General Scofield has ordered two troops of cavalry from Ft. Mercer, just across the river, and two companies of infantry, to the scene. The greatest excitement prevails throughout the city on account of the horrible disaster.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., June 9.—Walter Gray and Dora Velsay were found dead in the former's room.

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 9.—G. M. Jarvis' distillery at Santa Clara was seized this afternoon by revenue officials, together with 10,000 gallons of port wine. They have been distilling and selling brandy and portifying wine without authority.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 5.—Reports from several cities of Asiatic Turkey say cholera has appeared in any districts and is spreading rapidly. Along the lower Tigris and Shat-el-Arab River people are dying by thousands. Whole villages are deserted by those fleeing from the pest. The panic is so great that few families wait to bury their dead or even to nurse the sick, but flee to the next towns to escape infection. Fugitives from stricken towns are spreading the epidemic with appalling rapidity. Advises from Bassora city say 7 000 persons

COLUMBIA, ILL., June 9.—Six masked men held up the New Orleans express, on the Mobile and Ohio railroad, last night, and robbed the press car of $10,000 in cash, and a large amount of valuables, making good their escape. The officers have no clue whatever.

CHICAGO, June 9.—An injunction has been issued against the World's Fair Commissioners compelling

PARIS, June 9.—Five cholera deaths occurred yesterday.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Edwin Booth were held this morning, in "The Little Church Around the Corner," from which place so many actors and actresses have been buried. Bishop Potter officiated, assisted by Dr. Houghton and W. C. W. Bisharr, of Washington.

The church was filled to its latest capacity. Cards of admission had to be issued previously to prevent the overcrowding of the church. At the conclusion of the funeral services there, the body was placed on board a train and sent to Boston for interment in the Mt. Auburn cemetery.

NEW BEDFORD, June 10.—Lizzie Brown's trial is nearing its end, and the testimony introduced yesterday was very favorable to the defendant.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—Twenty-two more bodies have been recovered from the ruins of Ford's theater. Three men are still missing. The number of injured now reaches forty. Nearly all the dead have families.

The coroner's jury has been empaneled to investigate the accident, to place the blame where it belongs. It will also be investigated by the war department.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, June 10. The PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—The big new steamship Massachusetts was successfully launched this morning at Crampton ship-yard.

CHITA, KAN., June 12.—Patrolman Sutton of the Metropolitan police shot Henry Aikens, a native times at an early hour yesterday, killing him. He was trying to rest Aikens for living with a white woman. The negroes are quite excited, and held a meeting this afternoon at which they decided upon a plan to assist the county attorney before the coroner's inquest, as they claim the officer was unjustified in shooting Aikens.

are conflicting stories about shooting and the inquest is not closed. The officer has not been arrested. This is the second man killed by the Populist police in two months.

KANSAS CITY, June 10.—A special train carrying the body of the slain Star from Cimarron, Kansas, arrived here this morning. The California express No. 3, which was to have carried the body, on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, was stopped near this place and the express car robbed of about $2,000, as

There they made the engine ask Express Messenger Whittlesey to open the door. Whittlesey opened, and then the robbers began to get into the car. The messenger was wounded in the left side, but he pluckily refused to open the door.

The robbers resorted to dynamite, with that explosive blew the door in, though the safe could not be opened. The robbers made their escape on horses, riding southward toward the Indian Territory. Express Messenger Whitelsey was not injured and completed the trip to Santa Fe, N. M. He is the only messenger who stood off the Dalton gang at the Red Rock, I. T., robbery a year ago, and who narrowly escaped death at the time by shooting.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The dead of the terrible disaster at s theater on Friday last were ried yesterday.

Paris, June 12. The cholera is epedemic in Marseilles.

FROM THE GERMAN OF SCHILLER.

Oh, lovely world, where art thou? Come again.
Come, nature's flower time, that dreamed so long!
I feel no trace of all thy witcheries then
Is left, save in the fairy land of song.
I loom o'er the meadows brooding; no more they smile.
My eyes look for a god, but look in vain.
I b. of those forms that glowed with life ere while,

The Thyrsus bearers shout, "Evoe, hear!"
 The panthers with the glistening coat reveal the presence of the great joy bringer near.
 Before him fauns and bearded satyrs reel,
 round him Menads doted with frenzied zeal.
 Their dances hymn the glory of his wine,
 and his brown russet cheeks invite to deep full brimming beakers of the juice divine.
 Here stood not then before the bed of death
 A skeleton to scare with ghastly form,
 A kiss caught from the lips the latest breath:
 A genius quenched his torch and turned it down.
 He ruthless Judgment scales of Orcus by
 A mortal born of mortal races were held:

The elysian groves the happy shade
 Renewed the pleasures he had loved in life;
 A chariot careered through hell and glades;
 The constant husband found the constant wife.
 Here Linus' lyre resounds its wonted strains,
 Admetus to his loved Alceste clings,
 Nestor there his bosom's friend regains,
 And Philoctetes there his shafts rewinns.
 Here was a guardian of the noblest meeds
 Who up the toilsome path of Virtue cleaves,
 The brave achiever of heroic deeds
 Among the chief immortals found a home.

Russians Who Never Take a Bath.
In Russia and in the Balkan states baths are, as elsewhere, restricted entirely to the upper classes and are regarded as a luxury of the rich. The peasantry in these countries are so poor that they cannot

...aye, and the middle classes as well, never take a bath, practically speaking, and yet they seem to bear heroically under the deprivation and to be perfectly oblivious to environments that can only be described as aromatic in the extreme. He would be of but little use to a Russian peasant since he never dresses, and he could hardly be expected to bathe in his clothes. He is manifestly of the opinion that if he keeps himself hermetically sealed just can possibly get at him, nor can one quite understand how it does happen that the dust does get to him. It is sufficient for me to say that there is ample evidence in the perception of our olfactory faculties that the dust is somehow or other accompanied. —Cor. New York Tribune.

of ore projected through volcanic agency from the face of the m. has been sent from Rockingham county, S. C., to the state museum Columbia. Its greatest length is above 12 inches, and its thickness through the thickest part is about inches. In general shape it is though somewhat concave on side and convex on the other, broken off from the outer surface of a rounded and larger mass. It is entirely coated with a thick

In the W— and W— West.
Sappy—Aw, I say, I had a
and come out heah to "grow up
the country." Can you, aw,
me if he has succeeded, don't you
w?

Blue-eyed Dick—Waal, stranger, if
as a feller that looked like you,
I wanted him all right a year ago.
There, he's a feller.

The Fallibility of Opinion.—The knowledge that everything is fallible, and that so many enter into even the most careful scientific analysis, the presence or absence of any one of which vitiates the conclusion, that leaves a doubt as to the guilt of accused person convicted on ex-testimony. —Philadelphia Press.

Her Choice.
"ay, Bobbie," said Mr. Saphead, "does your sister like best in the world? I want to send her a present. I'll send Mr. Harlow up to her. I'll draft on him," said Bobbie.—Mer's Bazar.

him if I was afraid. "No," replied, smiling, "I have preached to my mother."

—

negie Music hall, New York is probably the only building of its kind which is ventilated by introducing fresh air at the roof and removing foul air through the floor.

There are, though the number has been increasing, 28,000 Chinese immigrants in the chief cities of the States—24,000 of them in San Francisco and 2,000 in New York.

---

There are no rivers on the mountain, no warm winds during winter, no tenderness in the heart of man," falsely says the Langue-sasant.

---

Most curious thing in finance frequency with which the first month comes round when you taking monthly account.

exchange tells the truth in following language: Newspaper is a very funny amusement. I give a man a puff he never but let one line against him and he sees it before the is off the press; and while he not have time to stop on the to say "thank you," he has run a over town to de

the editor who seeks to print
news.

---

Chinese female has appeared stage in San Francisco, be-first appearance of the kind city. She was born in San seo, and is said to be a draw-
to the theater.

---

number killed in the casualdents theater last. Bid

ord's theater last Friday is | ravag
aced at twenty-four. | coun

Grand Jury Report.

The following is the final report of the grand jury, submitted on Saturday evening: In the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the Territory of Arizona, in and for the County of Yavapai. To the Honorable John J. Hawkins, District Judge:

Said body was in session for six days, from the fifth to the tenth of June, 1893, both inclusive; that during said time we investigated 21 cases with the following result:

Bills found, 12, classified as follows: Murder.....4
Assault with intent to commit murder.....3

grand larceny.....	3
false pretenses.....	1
embezzlement.....	1
ignored.....	11
referred to next grand jury.....	1

We further report that we have investigated into the question of the proper inspection of cattle which have been shipped out of the territory, and find:

That the inspectors of cattle appointed by the Live Stock Sanitary commission, along the line of the Atlantic & Pacific,

... and ... in Cocolino, Yavapai and Mohave counties, who have been so acting for about two years past, have been very careless in the performance of the duties required of them by law; that they have repeatedly failed to inspect cattle being shipped; and they have failed to inspect herds of cattle about to be shipped, and instead of making a personal investigation, said inspectors have taken the word of the person in charge as to the brands and owners of said

We recommend to the Live Stock Sanitary Commission that the present inspectors be removed from office for neglect of duty and suggest that said Commission at once point trustworthy and intelligent men to fill such positions. We find in many cases where defendants have been bound over to await the action of the grand jury, the evidence is weak and meagre, and we desire to caution justices of the peace throughout the county to exercise great care in preliminary examinations and to bind over only those cases where the testimony shows clearly that a felony has been committed and that the evidence shows

onable rounds for believing t the person charged committed felony. Careful action in this ticular will result in saving undreds of dollars to the taxpayers ry year.

and we further recommend that clerk be paid $2.00 extra day for his services.

aving concluded our labors, we pectfully pray that we be disarged for the term.

ated Prescott, Arizona, June 10, 2

A. A. Moore.
Foreman of the Grand Jury.

---

The Kid Steals a Squaw.

So long as "Kid," the renegade Apache, confined his operations to robbing white people and stealing from them, the Indians did not attempt to molest him. It begins to be now however as if the Indians had recovered the $5,000 reward offered for him. The Globe Silver says that he has been seen by a party of Indians near the mouth of the Colorado river.

says that he revealed his presence on the San Carlos reservation at six miles from the agency, at near the hot springs, on Monday morning last, and appropriated the youngest wife of Tonto Bill, Tag A, and immediately left. The children of the captive squaw, boy and of tender years who were with her, he sent home, while he and his made bride; traveled in an opposite direction. The children say they know the Kid and are not taken as to his identity. (D)

part him armed with a Winchester, two belts of cartridges and a pair of new drawers strapped to his person, which he said he bought at the store. He was also equipped with field glasses. The stolen squaw was remarkably white for an Indian and is about twenty years of age. The disconsolate husband with nine children, was here in pursuit on Tuesday, armed and otherwise equipped for a protracted hunt. They are going into the Sierras.

as, thence via Salt river, Silver and elsewhere. They have associated youth with them as an interpreter, old enough to carry a gun and draw a bead on the Kid should it prove their good fortune to sight of him. They are well armed as to the value of the Kid and for his head, for the purpose of identification, if killed in the attempt to capture him.

The Prisoners' Picnic.

is getting to be looked upon as a sort of picnic to get from that institution. of them having escaped with very short time of course others a the lookout for an opportunity to get away. According to contemporary's report of the e of the two prisoners yesterday it not been for Hugh the contractor, there might

been a general escapee of Burs. Mr. Burns after having started for his dinner, rel, to look after his tools and on turn found the two prisoners.
g their escape.
there was neither bolt, bar or between all of the prisoners erty it is more than probable and Mr. Burns not returned discovered the two escaping isoners others would have folthem. The sheriff and his

It is said failed to discover the one or trail of the prisoner at yesterday until he put in an appearance last evening at John Smith's slaughter house. The two who escaped were Smith and [redacted], both accused of horse stealing. Smith, supposed to be the leader of the quartette who made the raid, is still at large.

President of NEW YORK, is member of the Tammany general Committee.